2023 ANNUAL AWARD HONOREE

KENNETH R. FEINBERG

RENOWNED MEDIATOR AND SPECIAL MASTER

Kenneth Roy Feinberg is an American attorney specializing in mediation and alternative dispute resolution.

He served as the Chief of Staff to Senator Ted Kennedy, Special Master of the U.S. government's September 11th Victim Compensation Fund and the Special Master for TARP Executive Compensation. Additionally, Feinberg served as the government-appointed administrator of the BP Deepwater Horizon Disaster Victim Compensation Fund. Feinberg was also appointed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to administer the One Fund—the victim assistance fund established in the wake of the 2013 Boston Marathon bombings. Feinberg was also retained by General Motors to assist in their recall response and by Volkswagen to oversee their U.S. compensation of VW diesel owners affected by the Volkswagen emissions scandal. Feinberg was hired by The Boeing Company in July 2019, to oversee distribution of $50 million to support 737 MAX crash victim families.

Feinberg is also an adjunct professor at the Columbia University School of Law, University of Pennsylvania Law School, Georgetown University Law Center, New York University School of Law, the University of Virginia School of Law and at the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. He is a Trustee of the RAND Corporation.

INTRODUCING MR. FEINBERG

CHARLES T. HAGEL

Charles Timothy Hagel, a member of the Republican Party, served as a United States Senator from Nebraska from 1997 to 2009 and as the 24th United States Secretary of Defense from 2013 to 2015 in the Obama administration. A recipient of two Purple Hearts in the Vietnam War, Hagel returned home to start careers in business and politics. He co-founded Vanguard Cellular and served as president of the McCarthy Group, an investment banking firm, and CEO of American Information Systems Inc., a computerized voting machine manufacturer.

Before becoming Secretary of Defense, he held roles as a professor at Georgetown University, chairman of the Atlantic Council, and co-chairman of the President's Intelligence Advisory Board. Additionally, he served on several corporate boards, including Chevron Corporation. He served as an organizer for the successful presidential campaign of former California Governor Ronald Reagan. He also served on various professional boards and advisory committees, including the American Red Cross, Eisenhower World Affairs Institute, Bread for the World, and the Ripon Society. Additionally, he chaired the Agent Orange Settlement Fund and was a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Among various other positions held, he served as co-chairman of President Obama's Intelligence Advisory Board, on the Defense Department's Defense Policy Board Advisory Committee and the Energy Department's Blue Ribbon Commission on America's Nuclear Future. Hagel identifies with Ronald Reagan's nuclear disarmament policies and was an initial signatory to the Global Zero campaign which advocates the international elimination of nuclear weaponry. He also served on the board of the Ploughshares Fund, which pursues the elimination of weapons of mass destruction and seeks to prevent their use.

A recipient of numerous honors and speaking engagements, in 2007 Hagel was awarded the Horatio Alger Award for Distinguished Americans. He was also granted the title of Nebraska Admiral by Nebraska's governor, an honorary title, considering Nebraska is a landlocked state.

The Atlantic Legal Foundation is a nonprofit, nonpartisan public interest law firm with a demonstrable history of advancing the rule of law in courts and before administrative agencies by advocating for limited and efficient government, free enterprise, individual liberty, sound science and effective education through school choice and parental rights. Atlantic Legal provides effective and decisive legal representation, without fee, to parents, scientists, educators, and other individuals, corporations and trade associations. Atlantic Legal's cases in the past few years alone have resulted in the protection of the rights of thousands of school children, employees, independent businessmen, and entrepreneurs. In case after case, Atlantic Legal brings about favorable resolutions for individuals and corporations who continue to be challenged by those who use the legal process to deny fundamental rights and liberties.
